

Staff training is one of the most important objectives in Romackcrane. Trainings include professional skills training such as welding and assembling skills and cranes advanced technology training, training of non-destructive inspection. All these trainings reflect Romackcrane humanized management of Respect for People, Respect for Learning and Respect for Quality. All these systematized trainings have become the solid foundation for Romackcrane team development.